REV. PETER C. WRIGHT
ADDRESSES Y. M. C. A. SERVICE Sixty Men and Women Listened to Words of Former Norwich Pastor.
What Norwich needs most, Rev.
Peter C. Wright said Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. rally, is a place where Catholics and Protestants and Jews, rich and poor, educated and ignorant, white and black, can meet together to think on the questions of eternal destiny, to learn obedience to God and his laws. Rev. Mr. Wright spoke on "Why Should I Be a Christian?" and he traced the power of the word and spirit of Christ in the lives of Peter, of Monday, of Billy Sunday.
The most important things he said were loyalty and obedience to the Master.
Secretary Edwin Hill of the Y. M. C.
A. introduced the speaker at 5 o'clock in the assembly room in the Thaver building where were gathered 60 men and women to listen to the words of the former Norwich pastor. There was the customary musical accompaniment.

At 10:30 the blessing of the church by Bishop Nilan took place. At the high mass Rev. C. H. Paquette was celebrant, assisted by Rev. Arthur O'Keefe and Rev. Joseph Cournoyer.
The full choir sang assisted by several soloists.
The sermon in French was delivered by Rev. J. C. Mathieu of Wauregan.
The sermon in English was delivered by Rev. W. A. Keefe of Plainfield, and he spoke on the History of the Roman Catholic Church, saying that the church began with the apostles who went through many trials and tribulations to bring the teachings of the church to the unconverted. As illustrations of the hardships which they went through, Father Keefe told the persecution in the catacombs in the days of Rome and later the persecutions of the church in England in the 16th century.
Father Keefe spoke of the early history of the church in Connecticut, telling how at the time of the trouble between the Puritans and the Catholics came to this part of the country and established missions in Norwich, Voluntown and Windham. From 70 Catholics were in an old printing office in Hartford under the leadership of Bishop Fenwick in 1826, in less than a hundred years, the membership of the Catholic church has grown to the enormous number of 200,000 in Connecticut. It was through the sacrifices of these pioneers of the faith that the advantages of the Catholic church are now enjoyed. It was through the sacrifices of the people of Taftville that the beautiful church which has just been completed was made possible. Father Keefe complimented Father Bellerose and the people of the parish on their generosity in contributing to the building of the House of God.

Rev. Bishop Nilan also spoke of the self sacrifice of the people in the building of the church saying that they made the sacrifices with no thought of might glorify themselves, but with the spirit of God in their hearts. The church will stand as a monument to their sacrifices.
The church is a place where the sacrifice which the people might make to the church; that is the learning of French by the English speaking members. This would create harmony in the church and also a better understanding between the parishioners.
Bishop Nilan spoke of the good work of the church.
At the close of the service a luncheon was served in the school building to the visiting clergy. The school was beautifully decorated by Otto Ernst. The following menu was served by the Wauregan:
Canape de Caviar
Consomme de Volaille
Queen Olives
Radishes
Small Lettuce Patties
Pett Mignon de Boeur Long Island Duckling, Stuffed
Apple Sauce
Mashed Potatoes
Lettuce and Tomato Salad
French Dressing
Frozen Pudding au Maraschino

In the evening at seven thirty an organ recital was given by Prof. Louis Bouvier of the Assumption college, Mystic. Prof. Bouvier is an artist in every sense of the word and he brought forth the beautiful tones of the organ with the touch of a master. Mr. Beaver was assisted by the church choir and Prof. Hugh Kinder, Miss Nellie J. Buckley, Mrs.
V. P. A. Quinn and R. P. Sullivan as soloists.
At the evening vesper service, C. H.
Paquette was celebrant, assisted by Rev. Joseph Belanger of Baltic and Joseph Cournoyer of Waterbury.
A great deal of credit is given to Father Bellerose for his untiring efforts in making possible the erection of church of such magnificence and beauty. The church will stand in years to come as a monument to the sacrifices of one dear to the hearts of parishioners.
